- You will receive 40% of the final selling price of your items, less a small item fee paid by the buyer, for all your items sold up to the expiration date.
- You may call to check on your account at the end of your consignment period, or stop in any time during store hours for your money.
- The selling price of your items will be reduced and/or sale-priced at our discretion.
- Any items found with stains, missing buttons, broken zippers, etc will be marked down or donated without further notification.
- The Clothes Horse is not responsible for, and does not protect, nor insure, against loss due to damage, fire or theft.
- We will make a concerted effort to sell your items during your consignment period and those sales will be credited to your account. At the end of your consignment period, unsold items will become property of the store and may be donated, disposed of, or remain on the sales floor. Items sold after the consignment period ends are not credited to your account.
- If you would prefer to pick-up any unsold items, call us during the last week of your consignment period to schedule a pick up date. An appointment is needed to pick up items, we will need at least 48-hr. notice. A $1 service fee will be charged for each item requested.
